Mr. PAUL J. SANTINI was interviewed at his home at [REDACTED]. He was immediately advised of the identity of interviewing agents. He was advised that he did not have to make any statement at all to agents, that he was entitled to the services of an attorney, prior to making any statement and that anything he did say could be used against him in a court of law. Mr. SANTINI indicated that he understood his rights and indicated that he would speak with agents.

Mr. SANTINI stated that he was presently Mayor of Hurley, Wisconsin. He was elected to this office in 1964 and will again come up for election in the spring of 1966. He advised that in his time as Mayor he was never threatened or promised anything in order to get him to vote for any vice element in Hurley. He further advised that he had never been approached by the district attorney or the city attorney, who is named RAINERI, to vote for anything he did not want to vote for.

Mr. SANTINI was asked about the licensing situation in Hurley by which taverns are houses of prostitution and are allowed to continue in existence. Mr. SANTINI advised that this was the job of the licensing committee and the city council to approve or disapprove the licenses. Mr. SANTINI was asked about places such as Kay's Hotel which was run by KAY MARTIN and TONY LYSCZYK and Club 13 which was run by LOIS GASBARRI. SANTINI advised that the council had voted not to extend licensing privileges to any of these people. Agents advised Mr. SANTINI that while this may be the case, these persons are still operating Kay's Hotel and the Club 13. Mr. SANTINI advised that the state law as it was explained to him by the city attorney ALEX RAINERI states that any person may bartend in a tavern as long as the license operator is on the premises.

SANTINI advised that the license operator of Kays is CHARLIE CHANDLER and is on the premises and therefore, KAY MARTIN and TONY can bartend there even though licenses have been refused them. As for the club 13 he advised that the license operator used to be HENRY KIMBALL and is now known by the name of JOHN CARLI. SANTINI advised that if CARLI is on the premises then LOIS GASBARRI can run the bar and operate the place in accordance with state law. He stated as a result of this the council is pretty much powerless to prevent these individuals from getting fronts and so operating these places.

Mr. SANTINI was asked about the town of Hurley as a whole and if the people of Hurley wanted the situation as it is now. Mr. SANTINI advised that he sees this as an economic problem. He advised that Hurley has no industry to speak of except taverns and what is needed is some stable industry, which will give people employment and thereby delete the necessity for having taverns which entice hunters and skiers and the like.

At this point the interview was terminated.

He did state, however, that he felt that his hands were tied by legal technicalities. For example, he stated he would like to go into Kays and see what he could see, but due to the fact that the door is locked he cannot gain access to see what is going on in there. Mr. ROMANOWSKI further indicated that he knew of no situation where the district attorney or any of the council members had advised the Chief of Police to lay off the lower block.

The first one ANTHONY TROLLA, who is a beer and produce distributor, the second one is SAM KANGAS, who works at the electronics corporation in town, the third is LEO NEGRINI, who works for the city as a truck driver. ROMANOWSKI again reiterated that he, himself, has never been approached by anybody who had tried to influence his enforcing law in Hurley. He further stated that he knew of no one else who had ever been approached by any member of the officialdom of Hurley, Wisconsin.

Mr. PATTRITO was asked if he had ever been arrested in his life and he stated that he once had been arrested in the 1930's or 1940's he couldn't really remember which. ## FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date January 11, 1966

LOIS GASBARRI, more commonly known as FRENCHY GASBARRI, was interviewed and immediately advised as follows by SA MALVIN LEE WESSEL: She did not have to make any statement; any statement she did make could be used against her in a court of law; any statement she did make would be strictly voluntary and no threats or promises would be made to induce her to make any statements; she had the right to consult with an attorney or anyone else of her choice prior to making any statement.

GASBARRI furnished the following information: She is employed as a bartender at the Club Thirteen, 13 Silver Street, Hurley. GASBARRI stated that the Club Thirteen is closed at the present time as there is no licensed operator present, and she is not able to obtain a bartender's license from the City Council, and for her to ply her trade as a bartender, the licensee of the establishment or his or her agent must be present so that she, GASBARRI, could work. She stated the Club Thirteen was being run by JOHN BUTCH CARLI, who had now moved off and was working at the French Casino, operated by ELLEN VITTICH. GASBARRI stated that as CARLI was no longer on the premises, she could not operate as a bartender.

GASBARRI stated that during the week proceeding the New Year's holidays of 1965, and more specifically the 27th through the 30th of December, 1965, a Negro prostitute from Milwaukee, THERESA HARRIS, had worked at the Club Thirteen. GASBARRI stated that HARRIS had come to the area from Milwaukee via train and had worked as a prostitute during those four days but had now apparently return to Milwaukee, as the Club Thirteen was closed. GASBARRI stated that it was planned that the Club Thirteen would be turned into a rooming house for skiers, that the bar would be open but there would be no prostitutes present. She stated she does not know who really operates the Club Thirteen, although the license is held in the name of CARMEN KIMBALL, the widow of HENRY KIMBALL.

GASBARRI stated that she would not say who told her of the future plans for the Club Thirteen, and again reiterated that she did not know who actually owned or ran the place. She stated that she was paid in cash and had been paid by JOHN CARLI, and she did not know who took out for Social Security or any other information.

GASBARRI stated that she knew that she should get out of the business of prostitution due to the fact that she had served a year in the State Prison at Taycheeday in regards to running a house of prostitution, but she knew no other business. She stated she could not get a job as a bartender unless the licensee was present as the Council would not give her a bartender's license in the City of Hurley. She stated she did not want to go on relief and knew no other trade. She stated she could not make any money otherwise and indicated that she did not know what she would do in the future.

GASBARRI stated that she knew that she was lucky not to have been indicted by the recent Grand Jury in Madison, Wisconsin, and stated that as far as she knows, there will be no prostitutes operating in Hurley in the future.

From observation and interview, the following description was obtained of GASBARRI:

The following investigation was conducted by
SA JOHN L. PORTER:

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin

On November 12, 1965, THOMAS HINES, Acting Assistant Supervisor, Milwaukee District, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service was contacted for information concerning issuance of federal liquor tax stamps at Hurley, Wisconsin. Mr. HINES stated that due to a reorganization of IRS, the Collection Division was now handling the issuance of these tax stamps and suggested a contact should be made with LARRY BOREN of the Collection Division, Federal Building, Milwaukee.

As background information, Mr. HINES explained that it is necessary to purchase a federal tax stamp for each retail liquor outlet. He stated that each bar in Hurley will be required to register and purchase this stamp which sells for a flat $54, on a yearly basis.

LARRY BOREN, General Teller, Collection Division, Internal Revenue Service, was contacted on November 12, 1965 and furnished the following list as pertaining to the above described retail federal liquor tax stamp for clubs operating in Hurley, Wisconsin;

1. #1-07385082, expiration date June 30, 1966, HENRY KIMBALL, Miniature House, 13 Silver Street, Hurley, Wisconsin
2. #1-07382154, expiration date June 30, 1966, RICHARD MATTRELLA and JOHN GASBARRI, 28 Silver Street, Hurley, Wisconsin
3. #1-07382153, expiration date June 30, 1966, RICHARD MATTRELLA and JOHN GASBARRI, 14-16 Silver Street, Hurley, Wisconsin
4. #1-06385790, expiration date June 30, 1966, TERESA KALASARDO, Kalasardo's Band Box, 22 Silver Street, Hurley, Wisconsin

MI 166-87

5. #1-07387774, expiration date June 30, 1966,
ELLEN VITTICH, French Cassino, 19 Silver Street,
Hurley, Wisconsin

A search of the record failed to reveal any stamp purchased under the name MARCIA LYON, KAY MARTIN, ANTON LYSCEK, Hotel Bar, and Kay's Rooms.

Mr. BOREN stated that a failure to locate a stamp being purchased in any of the above names did not preclude the possibility that the stamp had been purchased for the specific premises under another name.

SILVARIUS MARCUS RADERMACHER, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Minnesota, advised since March, 1965, he has been employed and operating a farm from Mrs. WALTER MC FARLAND, Milbank, South Dakota. He gave up the farm on Thanksgiving Day and will now be residing with his sister, Mrs. EDRINE STUMNE, at the above address. RADERMACHER will be employed as a laborer for the Rutter, Inc., 2629 Wilbrook Road, Minneapolis, Minnesota. He was born [REDACTED] in Lac Qui Parle County, Minnesota.

b6

RADERMACHER related he took a trip with his [REDACTED]

Armed Forces assigned in Georgia, in August of 1964 to Michigan and Hurley, Wisconsin. RADERMACHER related his brother learned while in St. Paul, Minnesota, that Hurley, Wisconsin, was a wide open town. In Hurley they stopped at a motel on the outskirts of town, name not recalled. They went to a bar or two in Hurley and while in one bar they were approached by a girl who talked with them and stated they could go to bed with her for $5.00. RADERMACHER stated his brother urged him to take her up on it so he agreed and was escorted to a second floor room and they undressed and while in bed with the prostitute a buzzer went off where upon the girl stated it was the cops, grabbed her clothes and ran.

b7C

Within a matter of a minute or two she was brought back into the room escorted by officers of the state of Wisconsin. He does not know whether this was the Wisconsin State Police or other officers assigned to the Tax Division.

RADERMACHER identified a photograph of LILLIAN ROGERS BADE as the prostitute he was in bed with when the club was raided.

RADERMACHER related that as best as he could recall the officers took his name and interviewed him there at the club. He was not arrested. State officers talked to his brother downstairs and after they had finished with him he and his brother drove back to the motel and left the following day for home.

RADERMACHER related he told the officers exactly how he was propositioned and did not hold back anything from them. He did mention to the officers that something like this could ruin his reputation, impair his job and give him a bad name back home. He stated he was concerned about his being arrested, but made no deal with anyone concerning testifying.

RADERMACHER related he has never heard of District Attorney ALEX J. RAINERI, nor has he made any deals with anyone regarding prosecution.

RADERMACHER has no idea why he was not subpoenaed. He did not know there was any sort of trial and stated he has heard nothing concerning this episode since he left Wisconsin in August of 1961. He stated he hoped the matter would be forgotten.

SAs JOHN L. PORTER and JAMES H. BREWSTER contacted WILLIAM PATRICK KIMBALL, [redacted] Wisconsin, at his home on December 8, 1965. It is noted that KIMBALL had no information regarding the death of his brother and no information regarding prostitution or other activities at Hurley, Wisconsin other than general information.

He did note that at one time he met JOUCE WOODKEY of Milwaukee at the Club 13 where his brother HENRY was manager and that JOUCE was working as a prostitute. He stated that HENRY was merely the manager of the Club 13 and was paid $125 per week. He stated this was told to him by HENRY and the actual owners of the Club 13 were "JACKPOT" GASBARRI and DICK TRIGELLO. He noted that upon visiting his brother at the Club 13, he observed his brother put the money from the day's business in an envelope and take the envelope into the Club Carnival and upon returning he would no longer have the envelope and apparently turned the money in to persons inside the Club Carnival.

He noted his brother HENRY told him in the past that he was in too deep to get out and the District Attorney at Hurley was involved in the prostitution activities with the others.

KIMBALL noted that he has no personal knowledge of any of the activities at the Club 13 or of his brother and he is merely reporting what he was told by his brother.

On January 3, 1966, a check of the Hurley, Wisconsin, City Directory and Telephone Directory failed to list any record of JONNY LOMBARDO. A check of local bars and night clubs in an effort to locate LOMBARDO met with negative results.

MI 166-87

At Wausau, Wisconsin:

On January 17, 1966, U.S. Attorney EDMUND A. NIX, telephonically advised that he had reviewed the facts of this investigation and had decided that there was certainly evidence enough to warrant continued investigation. NIX stated that the Grand Jury is only in recess and has not been dismissed and can be recalled at any time.

State Moves to Revoke Licenses of 5 Hurley Taverns

Journal Wire Services
Madison, Wis.—Atty. Gen. La Follette said Monday that he had started circuit court actions in Iron county to revoke the license of the operators of five Hurley taverns.

La Follette said the operators were charged in complaints brought by James Morgan, state tax commissioner.

The operators and their establishments were identified as Louis Gasbarri, Club Carnival and Show bar; Fred Fontecchio, jr., Parkside Fontecchio and Betty Lehooky, Liberty Bell chalet; Mrs. Naomi Morichetti, Connie's Drumstick, and Mrs. Teresa Kalasardo, the Band Box.

The operators were ordered to appear before Circuit Judge Lewis J. Charles at 9:30 a.m. Mar. 22 to show cause why their licenses should not be revoked.

The attorney general said the action against Gasbarri was based on a statement in his license applications that he had never been convicted of violating any law.

Court records, La Follette said, show 13 state convictions against Gasbarri at the time of the applications, including two of being an inmate of a house of prostitution, nine for permitting tavern premises to remain open after hours, one for selling liquor without a license and one for gambling.

The Band Box action, he said, is based on 23 prior convictions of Mrs. Kalasardo for after hours violations from July, 1955, to November, 1964. During that time, he said, Mrs. Kalasardo's licenses were suspended by court action in 1955, 1962 and again in 1964.

The Band Box was declared a public nuisance last December in a "padlock" action started by the attorney general's office, La Follette said, because of the use of the premises for prostitution solicitation.

The attorney general said the complaints in the Liberty Bell Chalet action charges that the Fontecchios and Betty Lehooky had been convicted of two after hours violations in 1964 and 1965. The complaint also cites two convictions in 1963 of Mrs. Fontecchio for after hours violations and three convictions in 1947, 1948 and 1949 of Fontecchio for gambling.

The Morichetti complaint, La Follette said, lists seven after hours convictions of Mrs. Morichetti—one in 1961, three in 1963, two in 1964, one in 1965.

The following investigation was conducted on 3/1/66 in an effort to locate and interview TINA ANN GUENETTE. It is to be noted that GUENETTE was previously interviewed by SA's MALVIN LEE WESSEL and JOSEPH E. O'CONNELL at Hurley, Wisconsin on 2/3/66 at which time she was working as a prostitute at the Club 13. The writer was accompanied in this investigation by SA O'CONNELL.

At the time of interview at Hurley, GUENETTE gave as her address [redacted] where she stated she roomed with one BARBARA EDWARDS. The writer recognized this address as that of a rooming house operated by Mrs. CHARITY CURRY who has the reputation of being a person who rents to prostitutes. However, she has not been known to profit from the activity of these prostitutes.

Mrs. CURRY was contacted and advised that GUENETTE had moved out and stated that she did not know where she had gone to. She stated that her former room mate, BARBARA EDWARDS still resided there and referred us to her for further details.

BARBARA EDWARDS was interviewed and advised that she and GUENETTE had had a falling out and that GUENETTE had packed up and moved out a week previous. EDWARDS professed not to know where she could be located but ~~she~~ did state that GUENETTE had mentioned going to Michigan to visit her ~~mother~~ mother ([redacted]). Reference St. Louis letter to Cleveland 1/11/66.

Mrs. MURRAY MITCHELL, secretary Corash Theatrical Agency, 16th and Court Place, Denver, Colorado, advised on 2/1/66, that Miss VAMPIRE has not worked out of the Corash Agency for some time and that the last time she knew of her she was in St. Louis. She stated she understood MIKE RIAFF, a theatrical agent in St. Louis, was handling Miss VAMPIRE's bookings.

Mrs. MITCHELL advised Miss VAMPIRE's real name is MICHELE DEVEREAUX. She stated Miss VAMPIRE is a non-professional dancer inasmuch as she came to the Corash Agency approximately 1 year ago after dancing as an amateur in various Denver clubs. She further advised she had no information as to who was Miss M. AMBROSIA, but did recall that Miss VAMPIRE was associating with another girl when she worked out of the Corash Agency and that this girl, who was also an amateur dancer, could have been AMBROSIA.

Mrs. MITCHELL pointed out that the Corash Agency is a theatrical agency and does not represent dancing girls as personal agents and therefore does not know of their whereabouts unless they are under contract to the agency. Subsequent investigation at various clubs in the Denver area failed to locate any information as to the whereabouts of Miss VAMPIRE, and the identity of Miss AMBROSIA.

ERNEST KROLL, [REDACTED]
advised as follows:

b6
b7C

He had been employed during the late summer of 1965 on pipeline construction near Hurley, Wisconsin. He stated that upon his arrival in Hurley, he learned that there were numerous prostitutes moving to the taverns and clubs located in Hurley for the purpose of plying their trade and taking advantage of the large number of construction workers in the area.

He said that he, personally, began having dates of a prostitution nature with a girl who, at first, identified herself to him as JOAN CRAWFORD and later told him her name was JO ANNE CRAWFORD. This girl was employed in Club 13 in Hurley and was one of four girls who had come to Hurley as mentioned above for the influx of construction workers. One of the girls departed Hurley almost immediately after her arrival and her identity was not known to KROLL. The other two girls were DOLLY (LNU), a person about 26 years, 5'3", 136 pounds, from Chicago, and a dark haired girl known to KROLL only as "PUSSY," who seemed to be the favorite of the club owner (FNU) KIMBALL. This last girl apparently lived with KIMBALL and was referred to by KIMBALL as his wife. When KIMBALL was absent, she would collect the money and operate the bar.

KROLL continued that JOAN was a [REDACTED]

KROLL continued that KIMBALL was very abusive to the girls in Club 13, and he has personally observed KIMBALL slap one of them in the face for allegedly soliciting tricks for which she did not share the profits with him. On one such occasion during September, 1965, KROLL challenged

He said he goaded and humiliated KIMBALL on that occasion and that subsequently, upon a visit to the club after KROLL had arranged for a prostitution date with one of the girls, KIMBALL brought a gang of men to the room and beat him with a cue stick. He stated that at that time he was prepared to file charged against KIMBALL and attempted to do so.

KROLL stated that he cannot remember any additional specific details which might be helpful in determining the identities of any of the girls who prostituted themselves in Hurley during this period but that he anticipates being there during the summer of 1966 with former fellow employees and associates of his in the Hurley area. He said that any information pertinent to this matter which he receives will be brought to the attention of the Resident Agent at Superior, Wisconsin.

She is now converting Club 13 into a hotel. She stated that there would no longer be any prostitutes at the location after the conversion to the hotel was completed. She stated that she was going to cater to both men and women, and would charge approximately $3.50 per night.

GASBARRI stated that recently she has had two prostitutes at the location, a woman known as MARY, whose true name is JOYCE WOODKEY from Milwaukee, Wisconsin and THERESA HARRIS. GASBARRI stated that the prostitutes left town a short time ago, due to the fact that members of the State Alcohol and Tax Commission from the State of Wisconsin had been in town concerning a trial of the Montreal Lodge at Montreal, Wisconsin. AT DENVER

On April 1, RAY GREGORY, owner of Ray Gregory Theatrical Agency, Frontier Hotel, Denver, Colorado, advised SA DOUGLAS J. WILLIAMS and SA WILLIAM J. MALONE that MICHELE DEVEREAUX was no longer employed by him. GREGORY stated that he had a falling out with DEVEREAUX, whom he has heard from several sources, is a possible lesbian. GREGORY advised that DEVEREAUX could be located at her new place of employment, the Rossonian Hotel and Bar in Denver, owned and operated by a Denver City Councilman IRWIN CALDWELL.

Date April 13, 1966

MICHELE DEVEREAUX voluntarily appeared at the Denver FBI Office and was advised at the outset of this interview by SA WILLIAM J. MALONE that she had the right to contact an attorney on talk to anyone else before making any statements to the FBI. She was advised that she had the right to remain silent, and that anything she now said could possibly be used against her in a court of law.

Miss DEVEREAUX advised that she is not engaged in any illegal activities.

Miss DEVEREAUX advised that she was born [redacted] Illinois and has been dancing as an exotic dancer, striptease artist and/or go-go girl since she was sixteen years of age. She stated she is a freelance dancer and therefore is not employed exclusively by any one theatrical agency. She further pointed out that she currently is dancing as a stripper and go-go girl in the Rossonian Lounge located in the Five Points area of Denver.

She stated that during the fall of 1965 she was booked as a stripper at the Club Carnival in Hurley, Wisconsin through MIKE RIAFF, a theatrical agent in St. Louis, Missouri. She said she traveled from Denver direct to Hurley, Wisconsin, along with Miss Ambrosia, whom she knows as JOYCE EDWARDS and who was also booked at this club through MIKE RIAFF. She advised she did not know MIKE RIAFF and did not have any conversation with him concerning her booking in Hurley, Wisconsin. She pointed out she received this booking from RIAFF through the Corash Theatrical Agency in Denver for whom she at one time worked. She stated she and Miss Ambrosia arrived at Hurley, Wisconsin sometime in October of 1965 and recalled that it was a few days after the man at the Club 13 in Hurley, Wisconsin had been murdered.

She advised there was quite a bit of talk about this murder in the newspaper and also among the people at Hurley, Wisconsin, and this is how she can recall the approximate time that she worked at the Club Carnival. She pointed out, however, she could furnish no information concerning this murder and heard nothing that would be of interest to the FBI.

She advised while at the Club Carnival she worked for the manager of the club, whom she knew as JACKPOT and also recalled that a white-haired man, approximately fifty years of age owned this club.

Miss DEVEREAUX, who advised that for a number of years she has used the name of Miss Vampire in her stage acts, stated that at no time did JACKPOT or the white-haired man ask her if she would engage in prostitution activities for them. She pointed out both JACKPOT and this other individual, whose name she could not recall, had propositioned her for themselves but as stated above had not asked her to work for them as a prostitute. She advised while at the Club Carnival, she worked both as a dancer and an MC. She further stated that the first day while in Hurley, Wisconsin, she and Miss AMBROSIA stayed at the White Way Motel and then moved to a motel which is blue in color and which is located approximately two miles from the White Way Motel. She stated she and her friend stayed at this motel for one week and then, during the second week she and Miss AMBROSIA and the other dancing girls at the Club Carnival rented a cabin located approximately twenty miles from Hurley, Wisconsin. She advised while at the Club Carnival besides Miss AMBROSIA there was a dancer known as JANET (Last Name Unknown) and two girls from Puerto Rico, MARIA and OLGA and also two girls from New Orleans whose names she did not know. She advised she had no information as to whether these girls engaged in prostitution activities or had any information concerning the murder of HENRY KIMBALL.

Miss DEVEREAUX explained that she did not enjoy her employment at the Club Carnival since she had to work long hours and that as a result, she and Miss AMBROSIA only stayed there two weeks. She said she left on a Sunday, sometime in November, and proceeded to Cleveland, Ohio where she worked along with Miss AMBROSIA in the Music Box Lounge.

Miss DEVEREAUX stated that she did visit all the clubs in Hurley, Wisconsin and recalled specifically the Band Box, the Show Bar, which she claims is also owned by the owner of the Club Carnival, and several other clubs located across the street from these clubs. She, however, pointed out she had no information that any house of prostitution was operating in this town and stated she was not acquainted with a woman known as LOIS FRENCHY GASBARRI. She further pointed out to the best of her knowledge she did not know anyone known as JOHN GASBARRI or RICHARD MATTRELLA. She, however, stated that the little white-haired man could have been GASBARRI, and she did not have any remembrance of his name.

Miss DEVEREAUX described JACKPOT as white male, 5'7" tall, 150 pounds, 55 years of age, always wearing a hat.

She described the white-haired man as white male, 50 years of age, 5'10" tall and 185 pounds.

She further stated that she presently resides at [redacted] along with Miss AMBROSIA who is currently dancing in Wyoming and who will return to Denver with the next week or two.

b6
b7c

Miss DEVEREAUX also stated that she was once before in trouble with the law and as a result has done time on narcotics charges [redacted] and also admitted that even if she did have some information of importance, she would not furnish this information to the FBI inasmuch as she did not want to ever get involved in testifying against anyone in a court of law.

She also pointed out that her mother, Mrs. CORDIA BARD, currently resides at [redacted] Wyoming.

Re Denver letter to Milwaukee dated 5/31/66.

Denver has continued efforts to locate Miss AMBROSIA (JOYCE EDWARDS) with negative results. Investigation indicates Miss AMBROSIA has been traveling in and out of Denver for two or three night stands as a stripper and at stag shows, and also indicates that on numerous occasions she has been advised that the FBI is interested in interviewing her and she should contact the FBI Office. It should be further noted that she has moved from her last known address and presently efforts to locate her current residence have been unsuccessful.

As previously reported, Miss AMBROSIA was a roommate to Miss VAMPIRE (MICHELLE DEVEREAUX) who was interviewed regarding this matter on 4/4/66 and from this interview it was determined that Miss AMBROSIA was with Miss DEVEREAUX in Hurley, Wisconsin shortly after the murder of HENRY KIMBALL and, therefore, would be in a position to furnish no information as was miss DEVEREAUX.

Unless advised to the contrary, Denver is making no further efforts to locate Miss AMBROSIA for interview.

DETAILS:

AT HURLEY, WISCONSIN

On October 6, 1966, SAs MALVIN LEE WESSEL and JOHN T. MC CARRIER entered the premises known as French Casino, a bar and house of prostitution, at Hurley, Wisconsin. Two persons were in the establishment - a man who identified himself as JOHN J. 'BLACK' RAVANELLI and a woman, ALICE CRYSTAL. RAVANELLI advised that he is presently managing the location in the absence of the owner, ELLEN VITTICH. CRYSTAL, an admitted prostitute who was previously interviewed, advised that she is still awaiting trial on her prostitution arrest by Agents of the Wisconsin State Tax and Beverage Unit.

Both RAVANELLI and CRYSTAL advised that VITTICH was out of town "visiting relatives" but declined to furnish her location.

On November 4, 1966, attempts were again made to contact VITTICH at the French Casino, but no one could be located at the location.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date December 20, 1966

ELLEN VITTICH, Owner, French Casino Bar, was interviewed and advised that she is still running a house of prostitution in connection with her establishment in Hurley, Wisconsin. She stated that she still employs two prostitutes - TERESA HARRIS and ALICE CRYSTAL, both of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

VITTICH advised that she was very upset with the fact that the prostitutes at her establishment and her bartender, JOHN J. "BLACK" RAVANELLI, had been arrested for prostitution activities. She stated that RAVANELLI told her he had been tried for pandering and was convicted in State Court. She stated that RAVANELLI has asked for a new trial and will apparently appeal his conviction. She stated that one of her prostitutes was already sentenced to a fine of $500.00.

She stated that the Club 13, a bar next door, is also operating as a house of ill repute and that no arrests are ever made at that location. She stated she feels that she is being picked on, but at this time has no statement to make to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She stated that she had always been treated fairly by the interviewing Agents and felt that sometime in the future she might talk to them freely about activities in Hurley, Wisconsin.
